Vision KW 20 / 20: "A Unified Congregation that is equipped to Evangelize South Mississippi"

FIDELITY

with Mike Benson

Workshop—Last Monday's Preacher's Workshop was our best yet. We had around a dozen for a morning of fellowship and Bible study. Seven of those folks were from KW including Jessie and Emma Pope, Shirley Carter, Seth Sullivan, Sylvia Madden, Lou Brown, and myself. Other guests included Arnold Kelly—the preacher for the Audubon Drive church in Laurel, Charles Durr—the preacher for the Central congregation in McComb, Steve Carter—the preacher from Collins, and Verlon Carrell—the new preacher for the Ellisville congregation. Jessie led us in a study of why we need to learn to fish...for souls. I led the group in an investigation of Satan's favorite tool...discouragement. Steve guided us all in a study of God from 1 Samuel 2. Do you love to delve into the Word? Do you enjoy sweet fellowship with those of like-precious faith? Do you like to think and be challenged in your exploration of the sacred text? Come and join us for our next workshop. Consider this your personal invitation. April 19 at 9:30 a.m.

L2L—There has certainly been a lot of activity around KW in recent weeks. Our young men and women have been preparing and practicing for the Lads to Leaders convention in Nashville. I am impressed with the dedication of so many of our youth. It's obvious that each of them wants to grow and excel in their particular field of endeavor. I also appreciate all of the parents and adults who have dedicated themselves to this important cause and to the youth here in our congregation. You've judged, encouraged, listened, planned, coordinated, urged, and led these special kids in their growth for the Lord and His kingdom. Thank you for giving yourselves.

Memphis—I'll be leaving for the Memphis School of Preaching this coming Lord's Day afternoon and this year's annual lectureship. The theme for the week addresses the subject of Old Testament types and shadows. I'm looking forward to the chance to "recharge" and think on things above. I would appreciate your prayers during my travels to and from Tennessee.
