"If a man has a soul, and he has, and if that soul can be won or lost for eternity, and it can, then the most important thing in the world is to bring a man to Jesus Christ."

FIDELITY

with Mike Benson

Good News—I continue to be encouraged by what is happening at KW. This past Lord's Day there were three responses to the invitation of Jesus. AmBrea Banks was immersed for the remission of her sins (Acts 2:38) at the morning assembly. Brianna Davis, one of our new USM college students came forward and requested prayers (James 5:16; 1 John 1:7, 9) on her own behalf. Then at the evening assembly, Melissa Robertson put on (Galatians 3:27) Christ when she was baptized. Pray for these. Encourage them. Support them.

Angela, AmBrea, and Steve Banks

H2H—We had a large group of folks come early Wednesday night to label and mail House To House/Heart To Heart. I like to remember that every soul involved in his endeavor is an evangelist in the Kingdom. "Thank you" for your time and good effort. You are sharing the message of hope to a lost and dying world.

USM—I'm hearing positive things about our new USM Student Center program. Colby Heathcock told me there were nearly 30 in attendance for the first Monday night devotional. That's great to hear and I'm confident this will continue. I see a renewed purpose and a real focus on how Jesus Christ should live in us. Speaking of which, Colby tells me that the theme for this semester is "The Teachings of Jesus." Those of you who will be delivering lessons, Bible studies, and devotionals will want to access the new "Jesus" section of the Student Center library.

Melissa Robertson

NC—Our Wednesday evening New Christian's Class at 6:00 p.m. continues to grow in size and fellowship. We had 13 in attendance last evening to share a meal and then study through the story of Naaman in 2 Kings 5. Naaman was a sad man (because he had leprosy), then a mad man (when he was told to dip seven times in the Jordan), and finally a glad man (after he obeyed the Lord and his flesh was restored).

"God loves you and I love you and that's the way it's gonna be!" —m

Your Help Is Needed: To my fellow Church Family: Your help is needed in keeping our auditorium and kitchen / fellowship hall clean. Please be mindful that we have volunteers that work very hard to keep the building clean. We are having an issue with trash and food being left on the pews and the floor after services in the auditorium. Please be mindful of this. If you use the kitchen / fellowship hall, be aware of the rules listed to the left of the refrigerator on the cabinet door. Everyone should leave the kitchen / fellowship hall ready to use for the next group. Sincerely, Robby Moorer
